

Louis Edward Cleveland

March 24, 1946 - November 5, 2010

Louis Edward Cleveland, 64, a native of Stamford, Texas and resident of Cedar Hill, died unexpectedly on Friday, November 4, 2010 at a local hospital. Louis was born March 24, 1946 in Stamford, Texas, the 3rd of 4 children and only son of the late Ector Felix Cleveland and the late Aurelia Lee Bell Cleveland. He attended school in Pampa until his family moved to Oklahoma where he graduated from Eden High School. He would also receive a B.A. from Texas Tech University in Lubbock. Briefly, after his graduation, he would do some interior design work, working for a local paint company and also with Modern Store Fixtures of Dallas. His final job would be with Primerica, an occupation in which he would become passionate about financial planning and financial education. Louis was a former member of Faith Bible Church in DeSoto where he still maintained friendships. He is a current member with Covenant International Worship Center in Cedar Hill. He is survived by his wife of 19 years, Patricia "Patty" Sopczak Cleveland; sisters, Nancy Gayle Elins and her husband Sheldon, Carol Ann Webster and her husband Jim, Katherine Lynn Brannon and her husband Troy; nephews and nieces. Memorial service will be at 7 p.m. Tuesday, November 9, 2010 at Covenant International Worship Center, 1010 E. Parkerville Road, Cedar Hill, TX, 75104, Pastor Tim Parker officiating. If friends desire, the family kindly directs memorials to the American Heart Association.
