“ Lucille was born 2 weeks before I arrived. We both spent a lot of time together with our grand parents. They were very good together with us. They also taught us a lot. Our grand dad would drive us around on some Sunday's to teach and explain lot about life and his life. In junior high my school would have dances for school kids. My mother would always tell me dance with her. We had fun, she was a better dancer. I miss her.

With love, Joe W.

“ Somewhere in the 80's, I met with Lucille & Joe at a downtown Denver hotel...a Lions club event, I think. Afternoon cookout on the plaza. Hundreds in attendance. When a homeless man wandered through the crowd, LUCILLE was the one to notice him and say, Robert, let's stop him and give him some hot dogs and a soda. Robert Wearden, Lucille's brother.

“ Joe, Becky, and family

*I am so sorry about Lucille's passing. I have very fond memories of her from my childhood (playing under a white piano???) and was honored she was my godmother. It was nice visiting with her and Joe at my wedding. You all will be in my thoughts and prayers.
Grace and Peace to you,
Amy Janecek Ellis*
