

Lynn Walden Clardy

December 19, 1944 - June 23, 2019

Lynn Walden Clardy, 74, of Arlington, Texas, passed away Sunday, June 23, 2019 in Las Vegas, Nevada, with her family by her side.

Lynn was born December 19, 1944, to the late Ward Ralph Walden and the late Nadine Frances King in Hutchinson, Kansas.

One year after graduating from Sunset High School in 1962, Lynn would marry the love of her life of more than 55 years, Ken Clardy. Together they would start a family and raise two beautiful daughters, Jennifer and Jina.

Lynn loved little hobbies that she could do from time to time as a housewife and homemaker, it was a way for her to provide for her family. Everyone who knew Lynn, knew that she was a loving person and very sweet and kind. Her children would know her as an “Awesome Mom” and to Lynn, family was life.

Besides the day to day Lynn spent with her family, she also enjoyed her time as a member of the Chord Busters Band, as well as being the treasure of The United Methodist Women’s club, in Mansfield, Texas.

She is preceded in death by her sister, Jan Walters.

Lynn is survived by; husband, Ken Clardy; daughters, Jennifer Beaman and husband Rodney and Jina Beaman and husband Robert; grandchildren, Zachary, Emily, Miranda, Ashley, Jake; sister, Sally Reed and husband David; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends.

Visitation will be held Sunday June 30, 2019 from 5-7 pm at Guerrero Dean Funeral Home, 500 E Main St, Grand Prairie, Texas 75050, where Funeral Services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Monday. For those that would like to attend, a burial will follow at Laurel Land Memorial Park in Dallas.

Arrangements entrusted to Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home under the direction of Aaron King, Funeral Director.

“ Lynn was one of the friendliest people who greeted me when I joined The Chordbusters Ukulele Band a year ago. She was a warm and wonderful person, who made me feel welcome the minute I met her. She will be greatly missed by all of us in this group, as she was a true Christian and loving person who offered friendship and warmth to everyone she met.
