

Mable Crawford

September 22, 1944 - January 18, 2012

Mable Crawford, 67, a native of Franklin, Louisiana and resident of Irving, died on Wednesday, January 18, 2012. Mable was born September 22, 1944, the daughter of the late John Jandofo and the late Pear Postieux. She was raised in Pascagoula, Mississippi, graduating from Our Lady of Victoria High School in 1962. Shortly after her first marriage, she would move to McKinney, Texas before eventually settling in Irving. Mable, a loving mother, had also been very active in raising her grandchildren. She loved playing cards and dominoes, or working puzzles. Raised as a Cajun, she was an excellent cook, specializing in rabbits and rice. When younger, she also enjoyed fishing. Survivors: children, Rodney Gene Smith, Shelly Ann Wright, Clifton Douglas Wright; grandchildren, Matthew Wright, Jeffrey Stout; step-daughters, Nelda Miller and Peggy Starnes. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Troy Lee Crawford and step-daughter, Elizabeth Crawford. Visitation: 2 until 4 p.m. Tuesday, January 25, 2012 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 East Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, where funeral services will follow at 4. Rev. Dan Robbins will officiate. A private family burial will occur at a later date.
