Macario Garcia was born in El Puerto Del Aguila, Gto, Mexico on July 23, 1935, the son of the late Rita Aguilera Perez and Jose Trinidad Garcia Perez.

Mr. Garcia was a hardworking man. Being raised working on the farm he was not one to sit around. He had a love for growing things such as vegetables, plants and more. Taking care of his family was top priority. Macario worked hard on the farm until his retirement at which time he then opened and ran convenience stores to stay busy. He would come to the states and work periodically as well. He married the love of his life Maria De Jesus Garcia in November of 1958. They moved from Mexico to Irving Texas in 1993. After moving back to Mexico for a few years they both made their final move to the states in 2019 just and settled in Grand Prairie. At that time Macario made sure to take care of his family by handing down all that he had worked so hard for to ensure they were taken care of and to carry on the family tradition of hard work, dedication and stability for their families. Even in his final days he still loved growing tomatoes and vegetables there at his home. Macario worked hard to continue and leave his legacy which he did so very successfully.

Macario is survived by his wife Maria De Jesus Garcia, his children Everado Garcia, Jose Trinidad Garcia, Maria Luisa Garcia, Adolfo Garcia, Benito Garcia, Zenaida Mora, Nicolas Garcia, Rosa Garcia, Juan Garcia, Maria Dolores Garcia and Maria Refugio Garcia, 36 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren and an entire host of family and friends that love and miss him very much.

He is preceded in death by his parents Jose and Rita Perez as well as his brothers and sisters.
