Mae House Daniel was born on January 23, 1944 in Whitesboro, Texas, the eldest of 3 children of the late Arthur Harris House and the late Pearl Miller House. After spending time between Lubbock and Whitesboro, she would move to Grand Prairie so that her family could be closer to her husband's place of employment.

Mae was a beautiful and a precious lady. She was passionate about her children and grandchildren, loved to go to garage sales, shop (especially at Kohl's), and listening to gospel music. She is described as a "Godly woman", faithful to attend her church, DeSoto First Church. Her instructions to anyone would be to serve God and make sure you are ready to meet him.

Survivors: children, Bobby Daniel (Marsha), Ricky Daniel (Julie), Heather

Aubrey (Kenneth); grandchildren, Amanda Daniel, Alexis Daniel, Trenton Daniel, Brittany Daniel, Justin Daniel, Emilei Rosales; great-grandchildren, Kailee, Caleb and Jamison; siblings, David House (Barbara) and Dorothy House.

Pallbearers: Kenny Aubrey, Robbie Child, Trenton Daniel, Elijah Garcia, Jeremy Garcia, Monte House and Jerry McNeely

Mae Daniel's life was a testament to love, compassion, and selflessness. Her memory will forever be cherished by those who were fortunate enough to have known her. The world has lost a remarkable woman, but her spirit will live on in the hearts of her family and friends.

As we bid farewell to Mae, we find solace in the fact that she is reunited with her husband, Robert "Bob" Daniel. May she find eternal happiness and serenity in the arms of her Heavenly Father, and may her family find strength in the memories they shared with her.
