Magdaleno Vides was born on October 15, 1952 in El Salvador, the son of the late Gonzalo Vides and the late Lucila Amaya. He would move to New York and Massachusetts before moving the Dallas-Fort Worth area in 2003. He would become pastor in Boston, Massachusetts for many years and co-pastor of Iglesia Evangelica Apostoles y Profetas Efesios 2:20 in Grand Prairie, Texas. He completed his mission, as pastor of Iglesia Cristiana Casa de Oracion in Fort Worth, Texas.

Magdaleno was an avid scholar and teacher. His first career was as a teacher in El Salvador and then as a master electrician in the U.S. He enjoyed learning new languages, playing tennis, bicycling, but his true passion was the ministry and teaching others. He was a mentor to many throughout the years

Magdaleno is preceded in death by their first son, Eduardo Vides. He is survived by his wife of forty-two years, Leticia Coronado Vides; children, Eva Vides, Mauricio Vides, Ana Vides and her spouse Erick Quinteros; grandchildren, Noemi, Raquel, Julian, Natalia, Lucas and Noah. Also by a large extended family and many friends.
