June 29, 1984 - June 6, 2025

Manuel Maturino, Jr of Grand Prairie, Texas passed away on Jun 6, 2025. His loved ones are composing his obituary, which you will be able to read here. is with heavy hearts but deep gratitude for a life well-lived that we celebrate the life of Manuel Maturino, Jr., who was born on June 29, 1984, in Dallas, Texas,. Manuel was a beloved son, father, brother, and friend, who made a lasting impact on everyone fortunate enough to know him.

Raised in Grand Prairie, he knew how to fix cars, but more importantly, he knew how to fix a bad day with his infectious laughter.

Manuel lived life to the fullest, always the life of the party, renowned for his loud and funny personality that could brighten the darkest of days. A true jokester at heart, his spirit was filled with warmth and joy, reflecting his deep love for family and friends. His devotion to the Dallas Cowboys and enthusiasm for delicious food were matched only by his willingness to lend a hand to anyone in need. He was a fierce protector, especially of his mother, Anita Gutierrez, who he cherished deeply.

Manuel leaves behind his parents, Anita Gutierrez and Manuel Maturino, Sr., son, Manuel Robert Maturino, siblings, Joe Maturino, Jessica Maturino, Yolanda Maturino, Erica Rubio and husband Cesar and Amy Calvillo, numerous nieces, nephews and extended family who will forever hold him in their hearts. His legacy of love, laughter, and kindness will continue to inspire all who knew him.

Visitation will be held Monday, June 16, 2025 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas from 1:00 pm until 8:00 pm where we will come together to share stories, laughter, and memories of Manuel who touched so many lives.
