

Deacon Manuel H. Veyna

May 18, 1932 - January 8, 2014

Deacon Manuel H. Veyna, 81, loving father, grandfather, brother, friend and servant of Jesus Christ, entered into eternal life on Wednesday, January 8, 2014 at a local hospital.

Visitation and Rosary: 7:45 p.m. Thursday, January 9, 2014 at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church. Mass of Christian Burial: 10 a.m. Friday, January 10, 2014 at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church.

Manuel Veyna was born on May 18, 1932 in Zacatecas Mexico, the oldest of 8 children born to son of the late Macario Veyna and the late Maria Aurora Hernandez. He would begin work at an early age, helping to support his younger brothers and sisters.

He would move to Grand Prairie where he would work as a fork-lift operator for The Quaker Oat Company. Even after retirement, he would continue to be active working for the Grand Prairie Independent School District.

He was an ordained Deacon, serving families at his local Parish, Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, for more than fifty years. He was always faithful in his service, only stepping back when his health no longer allowed him to be active.

He is survived by 5 children; Manuel Veyna Jr., Hilaria Aurora Perez and her husband Tommy, Macario Veyna and his wife Nelda, Antonio Veyna, Jose Veyna; 12 grandchildren; 1 great grandchild; siblings, Enrique Veyna, Jesus Veyna, Tomas Veyna, Javier Veyna, Estefana Veyna and Macrena Veyna.

The family request donations to Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Deacon Manuel's name for needy children's desiring confirmation classes.
