“Maggie was a funny, loving, caring, wonderful person. She was one of my residents, as time passed she become a special person to me. She would come to my office and spend time with me. Maggie loved to decorate for every occasion and she was my Martha Steward(my decorator), she loved Halloween she will go all the way that the neighbors could call to complain that her decorations would scare them at night 😭. Maggie was a beautiful person she meant so much to me, our conversations were the funniest ones. I remember one time she was flying to Arizona and we were so excited about the good deal they had that I we chooses the wrong city for her to land, Micky has to drive over an hour to get her. Maggie then call and said mija you send me to the wrong city, I say omg Maggie I'm sorry. She was upset but then she got over it. When she would come back she will come sad because she wanted to be home with her kids and grand kids, I remember she told me that she wanted to move back home. I will always remember my Maggie. You may now Rest In Peace my beautiful Angel 🙏

“ My mom was such a giving person. Loving, kind and a free spirit. She always loved decorating and going all out for special occasions. Very thoughtful of others never a dull moment with her. Everything about her was just so easy going. Nothing was impossible in her eyes. She was always so encouraging and positive. She made the best out of everything she had. May we all continue to grow in the love she had for us n may she always shine bright in our hearts as she did with her presence here on earth. I love you so much momma “toodle my noodle” ❤️
