

Margie Katherine Stricklin

April 28, 1923 - December 14, 2007

Margie Katherine Fox Stricklin, 84, precious beloved mother and grandmother died Friday, December 14, 2007 in Benbrook, Texas. Margie was born April 28, 1923 in San Saba, Texas, one of five children born to M.C. and Nannie Talbot Fox. Margie grew up in San Saba before attending Hardin Simmons College, then moving to Ft. Worth. Margie met her husband, Chester at Sagamor Hills Baptist Church where they were married. In 1960, they left Texas to homestead more than 160 acres near Anchorage, Alaska. Margie was an excellent pioneer, always working in the garden and home, never complaining about living without modern conveniences. Chester was a builder by trade and built every home they in which they lived. (more than a dozen) Margie and Chester lived in Kennedale after raising their children. She worked for Pecan Manor and the Tarrant County Clerk's Office for many years before retiring. Survivors: sons, Dan, John and David Stricklin; daughter, Donna Horton; 15 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; brother, Marshall Fox; sister, Maybelle Cockrell. Funeral: 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 18, 2007 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main Street, Grand Prairie, Rev. Al Stricklin officiating. Burial: 11 a.m. at the DFW National Cemetery. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Monday. She was preceded in death by her husband Chester in February of 2005.
