

Maricela Hernandez

April 29, 1956 - July 12, 2012

Maricela Hernandez, 56, a native of Matamoros, Mexico, died on Thursday, July 12, 2012 following a brief illness. Maricela was born on April 29, 1956, the daughter of the late Roberto Gonzalez and the late Yolanda Cabrera. She would marry as a young lady, moving to the Houston area until the late 1980's. At that time, she would meet and marry Felipe Hernandez. They would move to Irving where they would raise their family. Maricela loved children, babysitting and keeping children in her home to help supplement income. These children were always well cared for, with many becoming life-long friends as adults. A great cook, she always enjoyed cooking for her family. Special holidays were a treat, knowing that Maricela would be doing something extra to make the day special. She was skilled in crafts and was a gifted decorator. More than anything else, Maricela will be remembered for her special bond with her children. She was always involved in their lives and available for advice or just to listen. She is survived by her husband, Jose Hernandez; children, Jesus A. Flores, Luis Flores, Gabriela Hernandez, Felipe Hernandez; grandchildren, Yolanda Judy, Arturo Flores and siblings. She is also survived by her close friends, Oscar and Jazor Serpas. Visitation: 2 until 8 p.m. Sunday, July 15, 2012 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 East Main Street, Grand Prairie, TX, 75050 where a Prayer Service will be conducted at 7. A private family committal will occur at a later date.
