

Mark Allen Lambert

September 19, 1969 - July 16, 2019

Mark Allen Lambert, 49, a native of Dallas, and life-long resident of Grand Prairie, entered into eternal life on Tuesday, July 16, 2019.

Memorial Service: 2 p.m., August 3, 2019 at Lighthouse Baptist Church, 410 NE 27th Street, Grand Prairie, TX, 75050, where he was a member. The family request memorials be given in Mark's name, directed to Lighthouse Baptist Church Missions Program.

Mark was born on September 19, 1969, the son and only child of the late Michael Haskell Lambert and Guelda Faye Richards Lambert. He was raised in Grand Prairie where he attended school, graduating from Grand Prairie High School in 1988.

Mark was raised in a neighborhood with 4 other neighborhood boys. They enjoyed their childhood, spending many days playing and forging a lasting friendship. These men today have still been a big part of his life.

Anyone who knows Mark will know of his love for classic rock, especially Van Halen. He loved boats, especially fast ones, and enjoyed watching boat races.

He was a welder by trade. He was an employee of EAS Construction, mostly maintaining runways at DFW International Airport.

He is survived by his children, Kelsey and Casey; mother, Guelda Lambert; loving aunts, uncles and numerous cousins. Also by his long-time companion and best friend, Jere' Redd and her daughter Cianna Redd.

He was preceded in death by his father, Michael Lambert.

“ I am so sad to hear of Mark's passing. He was a very dear part of our church family and he will be missed terribly. I'm thankful to the Lord for Mark's testimony that he had trusted in the Lord Jesus Christ as his Savior and that he is now with our Heavenly Father. I pray God's blessings on all those who loved Mark.
