

Marla Maskobi

February 27, 1956 - May 30, 2025

Marla Maskobi, a beloved native of Fairfield, Iowa, and a long-time resident of Dallas, Texas, passed away peacefully on May 30, 2025, at the age of 69. Born on February 27, 1956, Marla's life was marked by kindness, warmth, and an unwavering spirit that touched the lives of all who knew her.

Marla's journey was greatly enriched by the care and support of the Senior Citizens of Greater Dallas, with whom she shared many memorable moments and friendships. Her compassionate nature and genuine love for others will be remembered fondly by her family and community.

Marla's legacy will be honored with a private family committal ceremony in her cherished hometown of Fairfield, Iowa. In the days to come, her loved ones will gather to celebrate her life and the profound impact she had on their hearts.

As we reflect upon Marla's life, let us find solace in the memories we shared, the laughter we enjoyed, and the love that will forever bind us to her. May she rest in peace, knowing she was cherished and adored.

She is survived by a brother, Rob Reid and his wife Deb of Fairfield, IA.

Marla was preceded in death by her parents, Carl Edward Reid, Myrna

Katherine Free Reid.