“ Rest in peace, Miss Mary. You were 89 years young, full of fire and energy, and had more spirit than most people half your age. You helped me watch over Brandon and Savannah when they were little, and you did it with love, sass, and a heart bigger than Texas. You were like a grandma to me—even if we weren't related by blood, you'll always be family in my heart. I'll never forget your feistiness, your strength, and the way you made us all feel safe and cared for. Thank you for everything. ”
