

Mazel Kole

October 10, 1923 - December 18, 2017

Mazel Kole, 93, a native a Port Arthur, Texas and Grand Prairie resident, passed away on Monday, December 18, 2017 in Mansfield.

Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, December 21, 2017 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E Main Street, Grand Prairie, TX, 75050 where funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Friday. Burial: Sparkman Hillcrest Memorial Park in Dallas.

Mazel Kole was raised in Dupont, Louisiana. While a young lady, she was athletic and enjoyed playing softball. She would be raised with a strong work ethic that she would follow all of her life. During World War II, she would work in a munitions factory, repairing guns and ammunition used during the war. She carried the scars from an explosion that occurred during her employment.

She was always a hard worker, employed at one time by Curtis Mathis and Iveall. She was selected as one of the three employees responsible for repairing the engine of the airplane of the US President. She would tell the story of being closely watched by Secret Service agents.

After her retirement, she became active and in the Civil Air Patrol. She had a deep love for animals, and helped rescue many of them from terrible situations. She had a special place in her heart for her cat, Dutchess.

She is survived by children, John Poland, Alvin Speegle and his wife Sandra, Sally Cutler; granddaughter, Maya Linderdaum and husband Aaron; great-grandsons, Deck and Ryder.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Bill Kole.
