

Miguel Santana Aviles

September 28, 1959 - July 25, 2011

In the early morning hours of July 25, 2011, God chose to bring Miguel Aviles into His eternal home. May he be blessed by God. May he be caressed by His hand and cradled in His arms. Miguel was born on September 28, 1959 to Reyes Aviles and Juana Santana in Guanajuato, Mexico. After coming to the U.S. and becoming a citizen, he met and married his wife of 28 years, Maria Padron. He was proud to call the U.S. his home, but still stayed loyal to his favorite Mexican soccer team, Cruz Azul. He was an employee of Martin Sprocket & Gear for 17 years. Although we will miss him, we rejoice in the knowledge that he is at peace, and has joined his father and grandmother in the realms of eternal glory. He is survived by his wife, Maria Aviles; mother, Juana Santana; brothers, Jose, Antonio, Fernando, Meliton and Blas; sisters, Candelaria, Gavina, Antonia, and Irene; nieces and nephews and extended family; Marta Vasquez, Valentin Moreno Jr and Chabela Vasquez. Visitation: 12 until 9, Friday, July 29, 2011 with Rosary at 7. Funeral: 9:30 a.m. Saturday, July 30, 2011 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home. Burial: Southland Memorial Park.
