“ This time last year Miriam came to stay with us and the first thing she said to me was, “I told you I’d find a way to move in.” She always found a way to make everyone laugh. That is one of her many qualities she is known and loved for. After she came to stay with us, there was never a dull moment around here. Miriam, I continue to find your “hidden” trash cans and stashes of paper towels around here, and it makes me laugh every time. I can hear you laugh when I find your little “treasures”. Love and miss you!

“ To those that knew of my Granny's paper towel obsession, this one is for you. I found what must have been months old paper towel stack in one of her flannels yesterday. It was probably used but I think I'm going to keep it. It made me smile and think of her and her obsession with paper towels that confused everyone. I love you, Granny. It's been a month without you and I still can't believe it.

“ Miriam was a straightforward, bossy, truthful, and loving woman. She loved to laugh and have fun.

Miriam loved the fact that I was a bookkeeper! She expected I would be doing her books. I did, it was hard to say no to her, lol. Although I was a little concerned about working for a (younger) sibling I need not have been. She was the best boss I every had. If I could think up a silly enough excuse for not coming to work she would laugh and give me the day off.

Heaven just got bussier and much more fun.

Fly high little sister.
