

Mollie Elizabeth Winkle Thomas

March 3, 1927 - October 14, 2007

Mollie Elizabeth Van Winkle Thomas, loving mother, grandmother sister and friend died Sunday, October 14, 2007. Funeral: 10 a.m. Wednesday, October 17, 2007 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home. Burial: 3 p.m. at Point Enterprise Cemetery near Mexia, where she will be buried beside her husband, the late Lloyd Thomas. Visitation: 1 hour prior to the service. Mollie Elizabeth Van Winkle Thomas was born March 3, 1927, the oldest of 3 daughters born to Jack and Lela Van Winkle. She had worked as an executive secretary for Humble Oil and for the Cotton Gin in Abilene. Survivors: children, David Burgen and his wife Cathy, Deborah Miller and her husband Charles, Jacqueline Thomas; grandchildren, Mark Burgen and his wife Sheri, Andrea LeCroy and her husband Michael, Matthew Burgen, Bridget Safrit and her husband Chris, Courtney Miller; great-grandchildren, Hailey, Emily and Jack Burgen, Lauren, Luke and Landon Safrit, Elizabeth Clark; sisters, Dolores Van Winkle Neely and her husband Rev. Vernon, Jane Van Winkle Coward and her husband Edwin. She was preceded in death by her husband, parents and nieces, Denise Neely Johnson and Deanna Neely Merchant. Should friends desire, memorial may be given to Gideons International.