Love you sis, forever...

“ Sis, it's been a year that the Lord called you home. As hard as it is we shouldn't question God's decisions. And people say time heals. Well it hasn't helped me. I think of you, I want to see you, I want to hear your voice and I want to hug you. Jeff is really hurting as everyone else is that loved you. Your not just my sister but you were my best friend. I miss our phone calls that would be 2 to 4 hours long. I know you aren't hurting anymore and are with those we've lost and loved. You touched so many people and will forever be missed by everyone. I love you and miss you more than anyone can imagine. I was denied the chance to see you and kiss you goodbye. I have to forgive because I am a Christian but I will never forget how bad he hurt me to the core. It was the most ultimate hurt he could do and I know it was for spite purposes only. But sis; I will see you again, hug and kiss you again. I love you and miss you so much. I pray for your boys. Until we meet again I pray you watch over us and that you rest in peace. Love always, Bob...

“ The year 2017 crept upon us so fast and my mind still hasn't accepted you are not here. I struggle every day wanting to call you to hear your voice and to see you so I can hug you. I know Jeff misses you so so much as I'm sure Chad does. He and David have not spoke to me since we lost you. I check on them thru Jeff and pray they are doing well. We love you Nanc and miss you dearly, Bob & Brandon.

“ Nanc, my dear sister I miss you SO much. Christmas just didn't feel right with you not with us. Brandon and I both miss you and love you. I can't accept your not here. I don't know if I ever will. I wanted so much to see you but I was denied which broke my heart. I have so much pain. I know you are with our loved ones but with God calling you home we all have a void. Merry Christmas to everyone and Happy Birthday to Jesus. I love you and miss you. I know you are an angel. 😇
Until we meet, your sister "Bob".

“ Nanc here it is Thanksgiving and I so much wish you were here with us. It has been so hard living day to day without my sister to talk to, laugh and cry with, and just do the things we did together. I was so honored to be with you raising our boys and doing the funny, the crazy and awesome things we did. I'm getting older and know I will see you, mamma, daddy, Jodie and all of our loved ones that are with you now. If I just had 10 minutes with you I would hug you so tight. I miss you my sister, my friend and my confidant. I love you very much. 💖💖💖💖💖💖

“ Nanc it has been 4 months since God called you home. I miss you more and more as the days pass. I don't have anyone to talk to like you and I would do for hours and hours. You must be so upset with how things have gone with you not here. It goes to show you were definitely the glue of your family. The boys miss you just as I. I will always love you and will see you in heaven one day. Hugs and kisses to you, momma, daddy, and everyone that is with you. Until we become a family again, rest in peace. 🙏🥹

“ Kayla Rodriguez,

Mrs.Mayo wasn't just a patient that I cared for,she was family and a friend. She was a beautiful and loving woman. I will miss our talks and our laughter we shared. The Mayo's were there for me and my children when there daddy got sick and I will never forget there love and compassion and support they gave us. I love them both more than words can say. I know she will be waiting to greet us all again one day with her sweet smile. I'm sure her and my daddy our having great conversations about me. I love you so very much Nancy. To David and the kids I love you all. Nancy was simply the best.

“ When I first met u, I was nervous as hell, but I'm glad it happened. They say everything happens for a reason and I truly believe that. God gave me these last 3 wonderful years of my life with u because it gave me what my life had been missing for so long. Happiness. U were an amazing woman. I don't know what Im gonna do without u. We laughed together and cried together. Those moments will be cherished memories for the rest of my life. Thank u for loving me and accepting me for who I am. Most importantly, thank u for raising a son who became a wonderful man. U will be missed dearly and most definitely never forgotten. I love u and miss u so much. Thank u for being every thing I needed i to be. May u forever rest in peace.

“ I have to many memories to share here. My mother was one a kind and never looked down upon anyone no matter what one did or said. She was always there for me good or bad and supported everything i did. I will miss you so much as well as every one you left behind. Life wont be the same without you. All i can do is remember you and do my best to make you proud. I will be here for the loved ones you left behind as i was for you. I love you very much mom and cant wait to see you again. Till then ill miss you.

“ Nancy i know your in a better place but after 39 years of being my best friend I'm missing you more and more everyday. Its hard to think how hard its going to be to continue without you because there is not a minute that goes by that I'm not thinking about you. But remember I'll LOVE YOU forever.

Love You

It will be hard but she will be watching over us and keep us safe. One day will will be reunited to etrnity. Untill then you have others that love you and will do what ever we can for you till the day you are reunited with mom. But for now we just have to keep on keepin on and make her proud of use. One day will see her again and we will have so much to talk about and make more memories together. Untill then keep your head up dad.

“ Rip my childhood friend. I am so sorry for your families loss. I am very sorry I didn't keep up through the years, I thought of you and Barbara and your Mom and Dad and extended family often. Some of the best years of my life where spent with you and Barb. I know you are resting well now with the angels and your God. Say Hello to my Mom when you see her, I know she will welcome you.

Connie, you were definitely her best friend. Throughout the years she spoke of you often. She and I would talk and laugh about things from our childhood times with you. You are a sweetheart and I appreciate your kindness. You will always have a special place in my heart as you did in Nanc's heart...

“ Too many memories to list. You were my sister since I was 5 years old. I do not remember life before you became my sister. We were not just step-sisters but real sisters. Dad made sure of that. I was a Cagle. I will miss you and cherish all the memories we shared. I love you. Linda
