“ Remembered as a fun Aunt. Always laughing. Loved to hear the stories of her and her sisters, especially of her youngest sister, Monia, my Mom. Almost burned down the house. Spying on Uncle George. Sewing his underwear together. Picking cotton. Remember a few playday rodeos, some guitar playing at her house. Good food and fun at her house. Checkers too. Some jokes about length of beads she wore, and where they would get caught. She was so full of life and laughter and will always be remembered by a loving nephew.

Words are not enough to express my love for Nola & George Loyd. These two wonderful people were an extension of the RICE FAMILY! John & Evelyn Waggoner/my beloved uncle/aunt....were best friends with the Loyds so back in the day ALL the families gathered for good grilled food/homemade ice cream/watermelon.....well of course George/Nola came. Us cousins considered George/Nola our aunt/uncle. Nola was always a happy person who always looked so pretty & smelled good too. She was an AVON lady!!! George, well he was always acting up....he was so full of life. The last time I visited George & Nola I don't think she knew who I was but she didn't let me know & I didn't either. Nola was a true SOUTHERN LADY loved by all. GOD called another one of his children home...she's out of pain! God Bless You George, Neal and I love you so much.....your in our prayers
