

Norma G. Hernandez

May 25, 1958 - March 8, 2011

Norma G. Hernandez, 52, loving wife, mother, grandmother, daughter and sister, died Monday, March 8, 2011 at her home in Irving with her family by her side. Norma was born on May 25, 1958, the oldest and doting daughter of Abelardo Lopez Sr. and Louthelma Garza Lopez in Buda, Texas. Along with her 6 younger siblings, she was raised in Dallas where she attended schools, graduating from Adamson High School. Shortly after graduation, she would marry Larry Don Hernandez with whom she would spend the next thirty-five years of her life. Together, in conjunction with Larry's job with Walmart, they would live in various cities, including Irving, Grand Prairie, Kerrville and Washington State while raising their own 6 children. Norma was a member of Heartland Church, formerly Christ Temple where she was active in various ministries including Life Groups. While health allowed, she was employed by Walgreens as a pharmaceutical technician. She loved the outdoors, fishing, going to the lake, walks, and cooking. Her grandchildren were her greatest pride and source of joy. Survivors: husband, Larry Don Hernandez; children, Amy Adame and her husband David, Sandra Hernandez, Josephine Hernandez and her husband Juan Castillo Sr., Lynda Rodriguez and her husband Michael, Joe Hernandez and his wife Gabrielle Bordelon, Toni Hernandez and her husband Louis Ayala III; 13 grandchildren; mother, Thelma Lopez; siblings, Donna Lopez, Abelardo Lopez Jr., Yvonne Lopez, Larry Lopez, Glenda Bahena and Dios Lopez. She was preceded in death by her father, Abelardo Lopez Sr. Visitation: 12 to 9 p.m. Thursday, March 10, 2011 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home where services will be conducted at 12 noon on Friday, March 11. A private committal will occur at a later date.
