Pattie Jeanne Hampton was born in Grand Prairie, TX on April 16, 1954, the daughter of the late Barbara Jeanne VanMeter and Clarence Albert Malone.

Ms. Hampton loved singing, dancing, Elvis, Michael Jackson and Dwight Yoakam. She enjoyed having cheese and late night coffee and would often do so while spending time with loved ones talking amongst one another. She spent a lot of time praying for others, talking about dad and telling stories about the past or just calling to check on someone.

Her family wrote:

Pattie always tried to help people even if it left her with nothing. She would always give people second third fourth and fifth chances even when they didn't necessarily deserve it. She was very forgiving, thoughtful and loving in the best way she could and continuously tried to make her kids happy any way she could. She would always bring us little gifts letting us know we were always on her mind. She would call to tell us she loved us even when our lives were at their busiest and she never held it against us. She gave everything she ever could to us and never expected anything back in return. She loved her grandkids and always would be there for them in the best ways she could and cared for them deeply. She put her trust in us and loved us deeply. Forgave us deeply and brought us together countless times even if we didn't realize it. She kept her family a FAMILY and loved us through all of our ups and downs and loved us in a way only a Mother could. She truly loved us deeply and unconditionally.

Pattie is survived by her Children Brandy Fitchett, Christopher Ratliff, Jeremy Malone, Michael Hampton, Matthew, Melissa and Mitchell Hampton, Sisters Ann Maone-Tarver, Merry Ellen Robins, Carol Leigh Gilbreath and Jacquelyn as well as a host of family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her parents Clarence and Barbara Malone and her brothers Barbara and Clarence Malone.
