“ This was such a shock to hear about Paula. I know this is really hard on all of ya. Our family knows how hard it is to loose a sibling and we know she will be missed. Just remember all the fun times ya had and laugh a lot. I can remember several things and all the times we spent at ya's house growing up when our parents played wahoo till wee hours in the morning. I have taught my grandkids to play wahoo and they love it. I tell them how we used to watch our parents play and we actually bought two of our granddaughters the game and they love it. Thanks for all the fun times.
