

Paulo "Paul" Emilio Granada

April 10, 1981 - October 28, 2005

Granada, Paulo "Paul" Emilio, 24, loving son, brother, friend and stranger to no one, died Friday, Oct. 28, 2005 in Richardson. Paul was born April 10, 1981 to Julian and Maria Granada in Chicago, IL., later moving to Grand Prairie where he attended South Grand Prairie High School. He was a fun-loving boy with an uncanny ability to make you laugh when you were feeling down, either by one of his characteristically witty remarks or one of his light-hearted practical jokes. He was passionate about everything he did, from his involvement in church, serving as missionary in Arcadia, CA., to his fascination with his bright yellow monster truck. He loved unwaveringly, especially his mother, and gave the best hugs. His short eventful life has left a huge impact on our lives. Survivors: parents; Julian and Maria Granada, brother; Fabian Granada and his wife Angela, sisters; Grace Granada, Cristina Wise and her husband Jon, grandmother; Graciela Giraldo, nephew, Jacob Granada, nieces; Lauren and Gretchen Granada. Visitation: 11 to 1 Tuesday, Nov, 1, 2005 at The Church of Jesus Christ of Later Day Saints, 2010 S. Carrier Parkway in Grand Prairie, followed by funeral service at 1:00. Burial: Grand Prairie Memorial Gardens. We love you Paul! We'll miss you.
