

Pedro Delgado

January 9, 1928 - November 1, 2019

Pedro was born on January 9, 1928 in Saltillo, Mexico. He was one of 13 children born to Hilario Delgado and Maria de la Luz Contreras-Delgado. Pedro would marry Celia Torres in 1954, and live in Monterrey, Mexico.

In 1968, Pedro took a chance and accepted a work visa offered to him by Ford Motor Company in Michigan. In August 1969, he brought his family on a greyhound bus across the border where he would raise his family in Southwest Detroit. At that time, he didn't know it but he was following the American dream knowing there would be better opportunities for his family.

In 1991, because of health reasons, Pedro and Celia would move to the Dallas area. Pedro took pride in the lost art of rebuilding the body of an automobile...he was an expert in his trade. He instilled in his family the Mexican culture, work ethic and tradition. Pedro had a love of all things tropical, music and shirts and food. You would often find him making new cassette tapes to share with friends, dancing, singing and always with his guayabera shirt. Or you would find him fixing a wrecked car in the backyard with one of his sons or grandchild...it didn't matter male or female assisting him with the tools. His family will miss his jokes, love of people with different cultures, lack of fear, laughter, love of life and beautiful adventurous soul.
