

Peggy Sue Plowman

March 18, 1945 - September 27, 2020

Peggy Plowman was born to the late Earl and Helen Brice on March 18, 1945. She departed this earthly life on September 27, 2020.

Memorial Service: 1 p.m. Saturday, October 3, 2020 at The Haven Church of the Nazarene, 1513 S. Beltline Road, Grand Prairie, 75051. A private committal will follow at a later date.

Her one true love was Coca-Cola. You rarely saw her without a Coke in her hand. She loved Days of Our Lives and watched it from the moment that it aired. Her two favorite singers were Willie Nelson and Elvis Presley. She absolutely loved concerts and would have been at one every night if possible.

Peggy had many interesting jobs over the years. Her most important though, was being the Mom to her 5 children. She was a hairdresser, school bus driver, a reporter at the Moody Courier, Florist at Flowers and Things and she worked at the San Patricio County Tax Office.

Peggy leaves behind her children, Malinda Holley (Chester), Leslie Dowell (Landy), Mandi Plowman and Jeremy Plowman. She also leaves behind her grandchildren Helen Proefrock (Jordan), Taylor Russell, Chris Holley, Joshua Holley, Clayton Dowell and Lasly Dowell. Also, three great-grandchildren Avery Holley, Verra Holley, and Silver Dowell. She also leaves behind two sisters Diane Brice and Maxine Stewart.

She is Preceded in death by both her parents Earl and Helen Brice, sisters Bettie Lou Brice, Jeraldine Brice, and Helen Earlene Collier, brother Weldon Brice, her loving husband Johnny Plowman, her son Michael Plowman and grandson Joshua Plowman.

She will be deeply missed by everyone that loved her. We will miss her spunky attitude, laughter, and love. Thank you for helping us carry on her memory today and forever.

“ I've known Peggy since high school and have been in contact the last few years. We spoke on the phone a few times and were frequently visiting via social media. I will miss her. One regret I'm sure she's having is that she didn't get to vote in the presidential election. May peace be with all of you at this time. ”

“ I remember being at Malinda's house in Moody. Her mom and a friend (I can't remember who it was) had just gotten back from a Tom Jones concert and she had a towel he had wiped his face with and she caught. She was so excited, waving that towel around. Such a fun person.

Thank you Judy...for the memory! It was mom and Carolyn Reat. I can still hear the excitement in my moms voice and the ticked off voice when it accidentally got washed years later when we moved.
