“ I'm so sorry to hear of Phil's passing. I have such fond memories of him as a friend and neighbor growing up on Northlawn Drive in Springfield. Such fun playing ghost in the graveyard with all the kids in the neighborhood...then getting in trouble for running through people's yards. We all got together to play many games of volleyball as well.

Had several pics taken with Phil when we were waiting for our dates to the prom. He was a great guy and will be missed. Keeping all of you in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Love to all of you...Lori, Julie, Mlssy, and Kenny.

“ I wanted to give an example of how fun and funny Phil was. He was down here hunting and wasn't back by dark as he should be. We all pile in a truck to go make sure he was ok. When we get there all we could see is blinking lights circling around the pasture about ten feet in the air. The neighbor across the street was in the road in a panic, thinking aliens were landing and was going to call the police. Now we spot Phil walking towards us. All we could see was a pair of glasses frames with blinking white lights on the rim. Turns out, he had been flying the model helicopter he had brought with him and in those days it was rare to have one. He got the neighbor calmed down and we laughed for days at the guy to brought aliens to the deer lease. We'd been punked for sure that time!

“ I loved Phil like a son. He was one of, if not the greatest man I ever met and I loved him dearly. We had so much fun camping, deer hunting and playing poker in East Texas, especially if Eric was with him. I had the honor of watching his love story with Tanna progress from meeting to marriage, and rejoiced with them at the birth of each child. He loved practical jokes whether he was the instigator or the recipient and made every second spent in his company more fun than should probably be allowed. My heart is broken for Tanna and all of us who loved him and I pray I see him again one day on the other side.

God Bless you Tanna and I'll come see you soon.

“ I first met Phil at Wittenburg when I stayed at the Beta house for a summer between semesters. After graduating I roomed with Phil and Jason for a few years at the Preston View apartments. At one point we were all working at Valley View Mall and Phil fitted and helped me get my first suit. I still have it, although it no longer fits. Phil loved his orange 240Z, softball and the Cowboys. I never held the latter against him though. He welcomed my future wife, Bonnie, with open arms when she moved to Dallas. We had a lot of great times together, he was a fantastic friend and was always there for anyone who needed him. You'll be missed big guy. Rest in peace my friend.

All my best to Tanna and family.
