“ It is said that the good memories sustain us. I tend to agree and at the same time, know that Our Lord, the Holy Spirit is our Counselor and will sustain us and especially the family of Ramon Llamas, Jr.. Ramon...Mone to us, was a good friend of my brothers when he was growing up. He and Javier, his older brother used to come over to our house and practice baseball with my brothers. Javier and Ramon would come practice with my brothers at our house before going to actually practice with the Little League of which they were all a part of. Ramon would try to take short breaks from practice and, would come in the house and visit with my Mom and, would have some of her famous atolito...hot cereal, with hot homemade tortillas and butter. The rest would soon join him but, he being one of the youngest of the group, would be the first most of the time. Later, Ramon's sister Lupe married my brother Joe so, we became one big family! ! A fine young man, Ramon was raised by his grandparents, very respectful, loving and a true American to the core. But even more than that, he was a fine Christian and I know someday we will see him again in Heaven! Our prayers are with Stella (always by his side, what a strong woman in the Lord!), Myra, and the boys, including the grandchildren. We wish we could have done more, but, we know that now, He will celebrate Christmas with the King of Kings, with his Mom, Grandmother and Grandfather and, with his brother Javier! They are rejoicing together now! Love all of you and will continue to pray. Have much more to say, love this family so much. We won't say goodbye, only, See you later! You are healed now! Elida (Salazar) and Tommy Aguilar.
