Randal Floyd entered this world on December 5, 1957, the 2nd of 4 sons born to the late Lorin V. Floyd and Merylin Sue Wyatt Floyd. He was raised in Kansas, and after a short stint in the army, moved to the Dallas area in the 80's to be near his brother.

He would fall in love with a young lady named Lourie Ann McCormick. After a couple of years of courtship, they would marry and spend twenty-four years together as husband and wife. Their lives would be blessed with a daughter, who he would lovingly refer to as his "roller coaster partner". They would spend countless hours at Six Flags Over Texas, riding rides and being together.

Randal loved helping others. He was kind and considerate, and wanted his role in life to be one of making others happy. He was active in his church, Grand Prairie Baptist Church, helping any way possible. He especially loved singing, not ashamed to "belt out" a tune anytime the feeling came over him.

Especially considerate of his mother, he would make sure that he talked with her every day. He never meet a stranger, and was always eager to talk about his favorite sports teams, the Texas Rangers or Kansas City Chiefs.

He is survived by his wife; Lourie Floyd; daughter, Ashley Nicole Floyd and her finance' Joshua Roark; mother, Merilyn Floyd; brother, Scott Floyd and his spouse Kristi, numerous nephews, nieces and cousins.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by his brothers, Mark and Greg.
