“ What a lovely lady of God. Heaven is a bit sweeter now. Bro. & Sis Leverton were a blessing in my mothers life as her Pastor's years ago in Abilene Texas. My mom went to be with the Lord in 1997, Jean Burnett. They are dancing on the streets of Gold. Thank you for being there in hurting and lost people's lives and letting God use you in magnificent ways! Prayers for the family....we love you all!

“ Though we have never lived in close proximity to them, Bro. and Sis. Leverton were great friends of ours. They became Pastor of our home church in Texico, New Mexico, where my wife's family were still attending church. Time and the work of God took us in different directions, but general Conference, phone calls, and Christmas cards kept us connected through the years. We are so saddened at the passing of this precious woman, but understand this is the day she lived for and the only reward she sought for all her giving. Our prayers and condolences to the entire family.

What a wonderful person so many things I remember about Sis. Leverton the love she had for God and church and then her children and grand children never once that I can remember she didn't have a handful of pictures showing of her babies she was so proud of them. GOD has a new angel watching over us all.

“ What can you say about Sis. Leverton. Words can not really describe the Lady of Grace she was. I remember when they came to Abilene to take over the pastoral ship in 1973 I think that is the year. Through the years when I thought I would spread my wings and live on the wild side, she never condemned or judged she just kept on coming by the house on Saturday morning visitation inviting me to church. Life will always have good memories of the Leverton's in Abilene growing up with Bart and Jana and at times driving her crazy I'm sure, but once again she extended her Grace to us as God had also. Bro. Leverton, Gina and Jana, she has won her race and a large mansion and a Very Large Crown of Life was waiting for her arrival to that city she longed for. The Maxwell family will always be grateful that our paths crossed many years ago. Our thoughts and prayers will be for your strength and peace during those times of grief and the lonely days ahead but always know she is waiting for you all on the other side. God Bless you all at this time.

“ Throw away your mother in law joke book for my mother in law as the jokes won't apply. I was a son to her from the day Gina and I were engaged. I didn't have the guts to ask Gina out until Mamaw told me that Gina was wishing that I would have ask her out at camp meeting.

Thanks for giving me that bit of info. Love you Mamaw. Gina and I can't accept that your gone. Probably never will. Now Mamaw, go find dad. He'll want you to do the Charelston for him. Jesus probably won't care.

Jerry.
