

Richard Arthur Nicholson

September 17, 1956 - October 22, 2010

Richard Arthur Nicholson Jr., 54, a native of Memphis, TN., and a resident of Midlothian, died Friday, October 22, 2010 in Mansfield, Texas. Richard was born September 17, 1956, the son of the late Richard Arthur Nicholson Sr. and Kathleen Marie Honeycutt Nicholson. Richard always said, though he was not a native Texan, he got here as fast as he could. He would first move to Sulphur Springs and eventually to Grand Prairie in 1967. He graduated from South Grand Prairie as a member of the class of 1975. On June 26, 1976, he would marry his childhood sweetheart, Tamara Jean Oglesby, with whom he would spend the next 34 years of life. Richard worked initially as a geologist, always employed in supervisory roles. His places of work included, Core Drilling, Roan Engineering, National Soil Services and Baker and Shifflet. He would eventually move to Copart, working in the auto auction business. Richard lived in Grand Prairie until 1996 when he moved to Midlothian. He loved his land, where he was able to raise vegetables and animals. He was an avid collector, collecting coins, antiques, baseball cards and guns. He loved hunting, working on automobiles and was a skilled carpenter. He enjoyed his local sports teams, including the Dallas Cowboys and Texas Rangers. Survivors include his wife, Tamara Jean Oglesby Nicholson; daughter, Anesha Nicholson Ramirez and her husband Humberto; son, Jonce Nicholson; grandchildren, Caleb, Marc, Jacob; great-grandson, Leon; mother, Kathleen Honeycutt Fulton; and sister, Victora Beesinger and nephews.
