

Richard Spratt Hughes

October 16, 1945 - July 10, 2006

Richard Spratt Hughes, 60, retired government employee died Monday, July 10, 2006 at a local care center. Mr. Hughes was a native of Dallas, the child of Gerald Weiland and Virginia Spratt Hughes. He attended schools in Dallas, graduating from Jesuit High School, then the University of Texas in Austin. After a brief tour in the military, he was hired by the federal government, working on various projects including the "War on Poverty" for MHMR. He was active in providing psychological examinations for Nannies of Dallas and inmates that were incarcerated locally. Survivors: a sister, Julie Hughes of Mesquite. Graveside service will be 3 p.m. Monday, July 17, 2006 at the DFW National Cemetery, Rev. Loyd Morris officiating. Mr. Hughes will also be recognized with military honors.