“ Bobby will be missed...I'd like to share a story. My son is Kenny Barnett. I have had the pleasure of meeting Bobby. Kenny called me and said that he and bobby had some bars stools to sell and wanted to know if I would be interested in them. The way they talked about these bar stools I thought they must have come from Dillard's the way they were carrying on. Well, I said yes, I'd buy them. They brought them to my home that evening. I was so excited about getting them. When they got there and I saw them, let me say this, those were two of the ugliest bar stools I'd seen in my life, but to hear Bobby talk about how I can scrub them, to touch up the rod iron, they'd look good as new. Well, His determination to sell me those two bar stools worked. I bought them. Kenny and Bobby and I stood outside talking for a bit, enjoyed just chilling with them. Bobby had the smile that would light up the night, perfect guy, perfect manners, I enjoyed meeting him. I will close with these two things, Bobby will surely be missed by many. Second, does anyone want to buy two bar stools? According to Bobby, a real good scrub, and some touch up paint, they'll be as good as new. Prayers for the family and friends.
