Robert Hardman, born April 5, 1983, passed away tragically on January 16, 2025, at the age of 41.

A man of remarkable talent and natural ability, Robert was mechanically gifted and could build or fix anything he set his mind to. He found joy and purpose in his many trades, leaving behind a legacy of skill and creativity. Above all, Robert loved his family fiercely, always serving as their protector and source of strength.

His love, loyalty, and unwavering support for his family will never be forgotten.

A celebration of Robert's life will be announced at a later date, where family and friends will come together to honor the memory of a remarkable man who gave so much of himself to those he loved.

“ My dear Love, when God placed you in my life my whole entire world was turned completely around! You showed me what it felt like to be truly and genuinely loved unconditionally! You taught me many many things about life in general. You was brutally taken from me way too soon! I'll NEVER understand why it turned out this way. BUT, God has a Devine purpose for each and every single one of his children....and your job for him on this earth was completed according to the Lord, and he called a precious, remarkable, loving, man to come spend your eternity in paradise baby! And that alone is the most beautiful thing that could possibly happen! Justice will be served in your favor one way or the other! I lost a man I dearly loved but, Heaven gained a BEAUTIFUL angel! 🙏❤️

“ Robert became a really dear friend of mine roughly two years ago. He would lend me a listening ear and advice when he had the worlds to help me lol mainly man problems when he would tell me to stop giving all the fboys the time of day to do me dirty instead work on myself. he always encouraged me to give my all to my college classes to better myself for me and my kids. He had one of the biggest kindest hearts i have ever had the pleasure of meeting and he will truly be missed
