“ Rhonda, Derek, Devon, Dane & Family,

What a legacy Robert has left as a Husband, Dad, Granddad, Father-in-law, Brother, Uncle, Son & Friend to so many. Very big shoes to follow.

I know the heartache that follows, Gerald also left at age 74. But the Greatest News of all is we'll be together again forever. In that Great Reunion that will never end. To know Robert is breathing the pristine air of Heaven and he is better than he could ever be on earth.

Robert fought the Good fight, finished the Race, and kept the Faith. Can't wait for the Great Reunion. ❤️❤️❤️ In the Name of The Father, Son & Holy Spirit.

“ My memories of Robert are so many; he had an easy and infectious laugh at jokes, stories and memories shared. He had a charming, quiet disposition that calmed a room and a smile that could instantly lift the spirits of those all around. I look forward to him greeting me in heaven someday with, “Welcome Home Darlin”.

“ Robert was more than just my daughter’s father-in-law. He was a dear friend and brother in Christ who became a key influence in me and so many of our fellowship circle. The memories I cherish are the countless moments experienced during our summertime treks to Fun Valley, Colorado, his passion for race cars, and his insistence that he be referred to as “The Amoeba” during all the wedding planning. He was most commonly seen with a coffee cup in his hand and a huge smile on his face. Dear Lord, I will miss him so much. Thank you, Jesus, for calling home and ending his suffering. Until we see each other again, I love you.
