“ Ron was a real character and we really liked him here at Lincoln. The students liked him too because he really gave them their money's worth in the classroom, he sure knew his stuff. He was always ready to laugh or to cause someone else to. As his supervisor I knew the students and the class were in good hands. He will be missed.

“ Ron was one of the biggest influences in my career , I looked up to him from the day I met him at Westway... for about 2 years I would have put money on the thought that he had no idea what my name was because for those years the only thing he ever called me was "Junior", I graduated to "Mikey" after about 5 years time which I think was a milestone in my career. Last time I saw Ron several months back I walked in on him eating dinner and it was one of the best sounds I've ever heard when he popped of a quick "Hey there Junior!" Gonna miss you Ron, you were one of a kind.

“ Ron was a great man, he touched my life more than he will ever know. I feel honored to work with him at the dealership and at the school. I will miss him greatly.

Funny story - When I gave him my two week notice at the dealership, he chewed me out and stated that "I cannot believe that you want to leave me to go teach". A few years later he came to work as an instructor, after about 6 months of teaching he came to me and stated "I'm sorry for chewing you out when you left because this is a great job".

I will never forget that or him.
