Ronnie Gonzales was born at the Holloman Air Force Base in Alamogordo, NM on August 19, 1964, the son of Delores Gallegos Gonzales and the late Avlardo Gomez Gonzales..

Mr. Gonzales had a passion for working on cars and had a particular love for working on volkswagens. He loved race cars as well and enjoyed partaking in the quarter mile drag races. Ronnie was well known for his passionate work and work ethic. He often worked extra on-call hours when no one else could because he was so dedicated and wanted to provide for his family. Ronnie was a proud and well known Borescope technician providing service to the Energy industry for over eighteen years. His co-workers proudly state that he was an absolute expert in his field and would be able to find stuff that the engineers could not. He was surrounded by so many that knew and loved him. Being a devoted husband to his wife Linda for over 20 years and father to Ronnie and Daniel was something that he was very proud of...not to mention his love for his devoted friend Dexter.

Ronnie is survived by his wife Andrea Linda Mendez, his sons Ronnie Anthony and Daniel Varley, his mother Dolores Gonzales, his brother David Gonzales and an absolute host of family and friends that love him very much. It was said that "Ronnie was a great friend and everyone is feeling the loss".

He is preceded in death by his father Avlardo Gomez Gonzales and his brother Richard Daniel Gonzales.
