February 9, 1965 - May 12, 2017

Rosemary Salas Lopez, 52, a retired nurse, entered into eternal life on Saturday, May 12, 2017 at a local hospital.

Visitation: 5 to 9 p.m. Thursday, May 18, 2017 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050 with a Vigil Service at 7. A Prayer Service will follow on Friday, May 19, 2017 at the funeral home. A private family committal will occur at a later time.

Rosemary was born on February 9, 1965 in San Jose, California, the oldest of 4 children and the daughter of the late Edward Salas and the late Gloria Corona Salas. She would move to Grand Prairie as a young wife and mother in 1989 to care for her aging parents.

After her youngest child would start to school, Rosemary enrolled at the University of Texas Arlington, where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in nursing. She would work for more than 10 years as a nurse in labor and delivery, assisting with the birth of several of her grandchildren.

Rosemary was a doting mother, but her joy was multiplied by the addition of her grandchildren. They could always bring a smile to her face. She relished the opportunity to help others. Even with the physical pain of recent years, she was always participating in activities to keep her mind sharp. She worked puzzles and loved playing soduku. An avid reader, she always had her bible near, and spent quiet times reading it.

Survivors: husband of 37 years, Enrique; children, Enrique Lopez Jr., Rebecca Lopez, Samuel Lopez, Sarah Lopez and her spouse Anthony; 6 grandchildren; siblings, David Corona, Edward Salas Jr. and a sister, Yolanda Salas.
