“ It's been a long time daddy I haven't wrote you I went to go take you some flowers and show the kids you, you would of loved to meet them there just as crazy as you I tell them stories about how you would pick on us as kids and I know there still to young to understand but one day they will be able to laugh at some of the things you would laugh at doing to us. I play video games with bubba just like you did bubba's got really good at it just like you it's crazy I remember being small not even understanding how you would do it and now I watch bubba and see a pice of you in him we all miss you and we still love you

“ There is not much I can say that can express how much I will miss you. I know we only know each other over gaming, but our connection was real. I fell in love with you and your kids instantly. Your voice, your humor, and your heart. I regret not being with you sooner and spending our life together. I wish that I could hear your voice sing to me one last time. I will remember your favorite line from a song and hold it in my memories forever "Follow me Everything is all right I'll be the one to tuck you in at night And if you want to leave I can guarantee You won't find nobody else like Gene" I love you Gene 4Ever<3

You know it's crazy how things can just come so unexpected. We didn't expect for you to be admitted to the hospital and then pass away like that. You where all we had. It's hard without you daddy. You where my best friend, the light, the reason I was happy because our mother left us so I just you is what we had but I was perfectly fine with that because you would take better care of us than she did losing you was one of the worst thing that could happen to us. Losing you was like losing a pice of me. It's hard not knowing what to do or say next is what sucks about This whole thing I cried hella hard the other day because I thought of you. I can't believe it's been 4 years since you've been gone you are my hero. The one I need in my life because withoutb you I can't do it “ Going to miss you my friend. We were as close as brothers for most of our childhood, adolescence and even early adulthood. A piece of me will always be missing going further. I remember you picking me up for school in your red escort with your system so loud I would always bring cotton balls for my ears. Rip Gene, you were a solid friend and a important part of my life. My condolences to the entire Gray family.

“ One of my fondest memories of my brother is sitting outside listening to old music of our past..old school rap. Gonna miss those little things like him saying "right,right", his smile, his laugh..the list is endless. Miss you bub
