

Roy Vincent Williams

February 16, 1966 - December 31, 2015

Roy Vincent Williams 49, a native of Dallas and resident of Grand Prairie, died on Dec. 31, 2015 at his home following a lengthy illness.

Survivors: mother, Brownwyn Wolfe and her spouse Robert; father, Dennis Williams and spouse Darla; twin brother, Troy Williams and spouse Millie; Phillip Peace; maternal grandmother, Mary Alexander; a large extended church family that he loved dearly.

Roy had worked as a manager for Kroger Food Stores and was a long-time member of Shady Grove Church, now Gateway Church.

Tribute Wall

VF

“ Roy was a very sweet and caring person. His smile was contagious and he enjoyed being around people. He was ready to help anyone who needed it and was very thoughtful in all that he did. He will be greatly missed, God took his angel home. My deepest condolences to his family. God Bless.

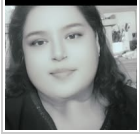

Vicky Flores - January 06, 2016 at 05:32 PM

“ Working in an atmosphere where people are normally in a rush to get in and get out can be nerve racking to say the least. At times people shared no conversation, no eye contact and almost zero emotions. Roy, no matter how bad of a day someone was having, always seemed to be able to stop a person in their tracks with a simple smile and greeting. Even when a child was testing a parents patience, Roy would round the corner, smile, ask if he could assist with helping find something and just as simple as that, a calm was felt and a new friend was made. Outside of work he kept up with this simple mindset that a person just needs to be noticed. Often I would see him around town on his bike waving at passers-by, waving, smiling, laughing and just noticing people. I truly wonder if he ever knew that he was the one being noticed. Being able to change a person's attitude with a simple gesture from bad day to great day is a gift Roy gave daily. I'm blessed to have been witness to such a gift we were given, and will always see his smile and hear his thoughtful warm words of kindness daily and for this I thank God to have meet him. Go into paradise Roy, you've fulfilled the Glory God has set in you to do here.

BJ Garcia - January 06, 2016 at 10:09 AM

“ Lisa Torres lit a candle in memory of Roy Vincent Williams

Lisa Torres - January 06, 2016 at 10:04 AM

“ Roy is one of the most beautiful people i have had the pleasure of knowing.....he had the most kind soul....always willing to help you any way he could never asking for anything in return....R.I.P. my sweet friend....you will truly be missed....my condolences to the family.....

Lisa Torres - January 06, 2016 at 10:03 AM

“ I worked with Roy at Kroger for almost 9 years .. he was a hard working guy .. never called in sick and would always come in to work on his days off or come in early if he was called! He would do anything for anyone .. Sweetest guy I ever knew! I often wondered about Roy and how he was doing .. then I ran into a facebook post his uncle wrote about him .. Everything in it was so true .. Words well spoken of Roy .. Praying for comfort and peace to Roys family .. there will never be another like Roy .. RIP ..

Irma (Martinez) Hope - January 06, 2016 at 09:40 AM

SS

I was so sad to see on Facebook that Mr. Roy had passed! He was a great person and always had a smile on his face no matter how he was treated. I worked with him years ago and always have remembered him. Sending love and prayers to the family. RIP Mr. Roy!

Sheri Smith - January 06, 2016 at 10:01 AM