“ I'm deeply saddened by Ryans passing!! I just taught him to play monopoly tropical tycoon a couple weeks ago at my aunts house. He was cracking me up the way he laughed at the story line of the game on the dvd!!! He was always so nice and sweet to me!! He will definitely be missed

“ Ryan was at our house almost every day and sometimes 2 or 3 times a day to play video games with George and Mike or to sit on the sofa between me and Jannifer to watch the soaps. He tried to act interested asking a million questions. When we got the knock on the door on Saturday we knew it wasn't his knock and couldn't think that he was never going to knock on our door again. We miss him very much and loved him. We were always teasing each other about something and then just laugh together. He always spoke highly about all his family and was proud of them. We will miss him greatly and the solace we have is that he is with God.

Love, Janet, Jannifer, George, and Mike

We will miss Ryan, but we are so happy that he did not have to suffer for a long time. Our last memory of him was when we had our fellowship Sunday meal in the pavilion on February 16 and passing out the last few pieces of chicken. He said that he would like another piece of chicken and with a big grin, he got a big piece of fried chicken. He really liked it!

I met a man at the memorial service yesterday, who told me that Ryan brought him a piece of chicken on that day. How special! Ryan, I guess could not eat it, but chose to take it to a friend. Sweet!!
