

Sandra Lee Todd

January 10, 1937 - January 28, 2009

Sandra Lee Todd, a homemaker, died Wednesday, January 28, 2009 in Grapevine, Texas, just 18 days after her 72nd birthday. Sandra Todd was born January 10, 1937, the daughter of the late John H Briner and the late Anna Martin Briner, in East St. Louis, Illinois. She would attend and graduate from schools in Indiana. Mrs. Todd was a member of the Lutheran Church. She had been active in retail sales, and worked as a restaurant manager for more than 20 years. Sandra was a great cook. When time allowed, she spent time working on her crafts, but also loved to read. She loved traveling, and always enjoyed a chance to go out to eat. Her greatest joy was her grandchildren. She always was a great example of what a grandmother should be. She leaves behind her loving husband of 51 years, Ronald Lee Todd; children, Rhonda Lee Todd and her partner Kathy Riley, LeAnne Builtron and her husband Paul; grandchildren, Angel Bright, Stefanie Builtron; and a sister, Cheryl Cash. She was preceded in death by a great-grandchild, Trinity Bright. When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to do and see. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we've shared so many years. I gave you my love. You can only guess how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown, But now it's time I traveled on alone. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near, And if you listen with your heart you'll hear All my love around you, soft and clear. And then when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and say, "Welcome Home!" Visitation: 2 until 4 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 1, 2009. Funeral: 11 a.m.

Monday, Feb. 2, 2009 in the Chapel of Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 East Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050.
