

Sean Evan Neely

June 22, 1966 - May 4, 2017

Sean Evan Neely, 50, a native of Sherman and resident of Fort Worth, entered into eternal life on Thursday, May 4, 2017 at a local hospital.

Graveside Services: 3:30 p.m. on Monday, May 15, 2017 at DFW National Cemetery.

Sean was born on June 22, 1966 in Sherman, Texas, the son of Jerry Lee Neely and Carolyn Kay Terry Neely. He was raised in Richardson where he graduated from Berkner High School.

Shortly after graduation, Sean would attend trade school where he learned to be an aircraft mechanic. His education would lead him to the US Navy where he would serve for more than 22 years. His service would include time spent on Whitby Island and Middle East during Desert Storm.

His time at sea would include tours aboard the Kitty Hawk and Abraham Lincoln aircraft carriers. His excellence in service aboard the Coral Vinson would afford him the privilege of being the sailor selected to greet President George Bush at the conclusion of Desert Storm.

For the short time of his retirement, Sean enjoyed working on and restoring motorcycles. He will be missed by all who knew him and those whose life's he touched.

Survivors: wife, Michelle McKelvy Neely; father, Jerry Neely and his wife Elvie; mother, Carolyn Terry Neely; brothers, Matthew Neely and Nicholas Neely,.
