

Seneida "Sandy" Antopia

March 4, 1970 - January 11, 2012

Seneida "Sandy" Antopia, a homemaker, died unexpectedly on Wednesday, January 11, 2012 at her home in Grand Prairie, Texas. Sandy was born on March 4, 1970, the daughter of the late Tiodoro Lara Torres and Anastacia Hernandez Torres in Sterling City, Texas. She was the 10th of 11 children, raised in Robert Lee, Texas where she attended and graduated from San Angelo Central High School. Even though her sickness has caused the deterioration of her eyesight, Sandy remained a bright and cheerful person. She loved talking on the phone, and when she was able, dancing. She was very smart and knowledgeable and available to give counseling and guidance. Survivors: husband of 9 years, Jose Antopia; daughter, Rebecca Henry; mother, Anastacia Torres; siblings, Margie Loza, Patricia Albolaez, Melinda Torres, Raymundo Torres, James Torres and Victoria Martinez. She was preceded in death by her father; brothers, Benito, Johnny and Fermine Torres; and a sister, Teresa Bermudes. Visitation: 9 until 1 p.m. Friday, Jan. 13, 2012 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home where a Rosary and Prayer Service will occur at 1. A private burial will occur at a later date.
