“ stacy was special to me because I got to be her Aunt by marriage, she and I became close when she was a young teenager. She use to spend the night with us often. We had many talks. She always made me feel special. No matter how long it had been since we saw each other, she would run up to me an tell me how good it was to see methat always blessed my heart. My greatest joy was the night I was with her when she gave her heart to Jesus. I will carry her memory in my heart as long as I live.

“ As I reflect back on our friendship. I think back to 5th grade when we all were a girl from the babysitters club lol and when we took school pictures together in middle school. I wish I could find those. Our daily drives to and from high school. Our chats about boys and our favorite songs. I have so many memories. I could go on and on. I miss you sweet friend. I love you. Until we meet again.
