“ Steve was a man among men. He held to the true traditions of being a gentleman in every aspect of life. He loved and lived and loved some more. His tireless sacrifices to do what was right continue to inspire me. I have seen him take the downtrodden and lift them higher than himself. I have watched his tender words soothe sorrowful souls; and I have been a recipient of his sweet friendship. There is a void in my heart today as I think of never seeing him on this earth again; but heaven grows sweeter every day knowing he is resting finally in the arms of our Savior. Until then, Steve! Much love and prayers to the family. Beth Banning

“ Terri and David Green
We had the joy of having a lengthy conversation with Steve just a couple months ago. We were concerned about him after Erika and Susie's passing. Though broken hearted, he gave a glorious testimony of the Lord's goodness. It was inspiring . Steve was a good, kind, and most giving man. May he Rest In Peace with his beloved Savior and his dear family whom he fiercely loved . You will be greatly missed dear friend.

“ Besides the numerous times he helped so many people, I remember all the times I spent the night with Erika on Saturday night. Susie would always be working her crossword puzzles, while watching Cops. And just about every Sunday morning, Steve would wake up early just to make both regular cinnamon rolls and orange rolls. It was his Sunday tradition and one I love to think and remember. Now every time I cook orange rolls I think of him! He had such an infectious laugh and love for the Lord which he showed by loving those around him. He enjoyed helping people and would have done anything he could. My uncle was one of the best men out there, he will be dearly missed!
