“ Sue and Lee were two of the kindest people I ever had the joy of loving during my ministry. How wonderful to be in the arms of Jesus.

“ SUE was my dear friend for over 30 years. She and I had many happy times together. Sue had such a loving and tender heart. She adored her son and beautiful grandchildren. In addition, was so blessed to spend time with her great grandson this year. Sue loved the Lord with all her heart and was a faithful church member as health would permit. She loved and appreciated her pastors Doug Simon and Fred Heath. It is a sad and a great loss to say goodbye to my dear friend. Someday I will see you again in the beautiful place we call Heaven. I too ,want to walk all over Heaven with you!
