“ I remember the time I first met Sylvia when her son Justin and I were just starting out dating (Justin is now my Husband). They were looking for my house to come over and couldn't find it, So I walked on down to see if I could find them in which I did I got in the car and as soon as I jumped in I said "Hi there" at that moment she had dropped her cigarette in the car she yelled out "God Damn't" I busted out laughing she was soo funny I really enjoyed her stories she would tell me. I miss you Sylvia I wish you could still be here with us u really wanted you to be my Mother n Law. ??

“ Anita- My heart heavy for your loss. No parent should have to endure the loss of a child, not at any age. Know God must have some roses in his garden and he chose yours. The journey of life is never easy but know your friends and family who love you will make the path smoother. May God's love and strength be with you and yours, now as always

“ I am so, so sorry about Sylvia. I am nephew to Johnny and Ginger, and I remember Sylvia from family get-togethers gone by. As a boy, I recall thinking, "Wow! She's pretty!" And she really was. Any time I saw her, I knew her to be a kind, fun-loving person. I will be praying for you and for your family. May the Lord God Almighty bless you with His abundant peace through His Son, Jesus - the Prince of Peace.
In His love,
Brad Jameson
