

Tiburcio Hernandez

April 14, 1939 - April 7, 2012

Tiburcio Hernandez, 72, a native of Mexico and long time resident of Ft. Worth, died on Saturday, April 7, 2012, just 7 days prior to his 73rd birthday. Tiburcio was born on April 14, 1939, the son of the late Febrenio Hernandez and the Geneva Gutierrez. He would reside in El Paso before moving to Ft. Worth, where he worked as a self employed salesman with a passion for selling shoes. Tiburcio was a hard working man. Even when relaxing, he enjoyed working, always cleaning the pool or gardening. He took pride and had a real talent for growing roses and grapes. He was a great storyteller. Those who know him best knew that he loved to fix things that were broken. His neighbors would see him often walking or reading his Bible. He is survived by his wife of 43 years, Raquel Hernandez; children, Edward Hernandez and his wife Juanita, Maribel Hernandez and her husband Mario Cortez, Waldo Hernandez and his wife Catalina, Richard Hernandez, David Hernandez, Emily Hernandez and Alex Hernandez. Also by 10 grandchildren; 2 sisters, Margarita Hernandez and Luce Hernandez. Funeral: 1 p.m. Monday, April 9, 2012 at La Primera Iglesia Apostolica, 2000 N. Grace St. Ft. Worth. Visitation will precede the service from 11 until 1. Burial will follow at Mt. Olivet Cemetery.
